Banned Books Week is an annual event celebrating the freedom to read. Books are regularly banned and challenged. A challenge is an attempt to remove or restrict materials, based upon the objections of a person or group. A banning is the removal of those materials.

While books have been and continue to be banned, part of the Banned Books Week celebration is the fact that, in a majority of cases, the books have remained available.

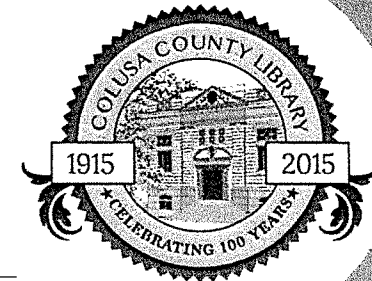

Come check out which of your favorite titles have been challenged and/or banned. No doubts, you will be surprised!

PAWS

★ TO ★ READ

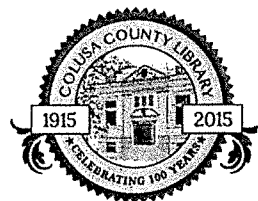

WHAT: practice reading out loud with a furry friend!

WHEN: Saturday, August 24, 10:00-11:00
Saturday, September 28, 10:00-11:00
Saturday, October 26, 10:00-11:00
Saturday, November 23, 10:00-11:00

WHERE: Colusa County Free Library, main branch, Colusa

WHY: By providing safe, positive interaction with animals, Paws to Read offers children a relaxed, non-judgmental environment in which to practice reading.

The benefits of reading to animals have been documented to include increased reading fluency and improved attitudes about reading aloud.
